ORDER

THIS MOTION, made by the Corporation of the City of Windsor (the “City”) for an order accepting its Notice of Application dated February 17, 2022 (the “Application”) as the underlying proceeding in the motion brought by the Automotive Parts Manufacturers’

Association (“APMA”) and supported by the City and the Attorney General of Ontario (“AG”) for an injunction, which relief was granted by Order of this Court dated February 11, 2022 (the “February 11 Injunction Motion”), consolidating the Application with the previous February 11 Injunction Motion, and amending the title of proceedings pursuant to Rules 1.04, 6.01, 14.06, 16.04(1), 37.17, and 26.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, was heard at Windsor on February 18, 2022 by videoconference.

UPON HEARING the consent of the APMA and the AG, and the oral submissions of counsel for the Plaintiff, counsel for the City, counsel for the Intervenor (Friend of the Court) the Democracy Fund, and Antoine D’Ailly, counsel for Citizens for Freedom, via videoconference:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS that the City’s Application attached as Schedule “A” to this Order is hereby consolidated with the February 11 Injunction Motion, and was heard together with the continuation of the February 11 Injunction Motion heard today.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS that this proceeding shall continue as an Application, with the following amended style of case:
